

7½ Bowry and find that your debtor Mr. Brunswick has removed to 76 Prince St. too far up town for me to see him to day. I will try to see him next week and let you know the result. I called at the Bowry establishment before he left it two or three times without seeing him.

I have also called on the Editor of the Evangelist on your errand but did not find him.

Ever yours

E. Wright Jr.

My dear Bro. Before I left Boston, I think you requested me to send on some names; some sort, but (if you did) I have forgotten of what sort. If you will write me, it shall be attended to. Will you hand the annexed to friend Knapp?

Do write me, tell me how the "Appeal" business is coming on, & what your Committee have done. I am anxious to know. Thine to the c

H. P. Ranters

N.B. We will appoint any other local agents whom you will recommend.

Elizur Wright Jr
Anti Slavery Office, New York

Sep. 2, 1837.

44
Dear Brother Phelps,

I will bring your nomination of St. Clair before our meeting next week. Our local agents already appointed in Massachusetts are, so far as I find them on the minutes, John W. Brorone Esq., Lynn; Rev. P. R. Russell, Lynn; W. Phillips Esq. Boston; Rev. J. W. Croso, Boston; Rev. Geo. Allen, Shrewsbury; Geo. Russell Esq. Kingston; Rev. J. D. Choules, N. Bedford; Rev. S. Lincoln, Gardner; Rev. J. Wilder, Concord; Rev. J. Barnaby, Townsend; Rev. J. Horton, Boston; Rev. T. Packard, St Shelburne Falls; Rev. James Porter, Wilbraham; Roger Lenoir Esq. Chatham; A. St. Clair, W. Boylston; Rev. Jas. T. Woodbury, Acton; Rev. S. J. May, S. Scituate; Rev. G. ^{B.} Perry, Brandford; and there may be some others further back on the minutes than, at this minute, I have time to look. This I should have said some days ago, but really my time has been run away with by business which I could not control. As to your reward, I have just called at